The 6th Annual St. Alban’s Chapel Summer Retreat

Plans are well underway for our sixth summer retreat at the Solomon Episcopal Conference Center (August 13 – 15, 2010). Susan Nelson and her dedicated committee are busy finalizing plans for the fishing tournament, talent show, ice cream social, children’s program, and more! And we’ve even been able to lower the cost of the weekend this year. So sign up RIGHT NOW!

Larry Hubbard and Sarah Brown

which meets three times over the weekend to discuss the retreat theme and to simply get to know each other. In addition to that small group time, the retreat includes a Saturday evening “Crazy Talent(less) Night” hosted by Larry Hubbard and Sarah Brown. Parallel to the adult program, our children will enjoy games, discussions, and crafts based on the Narnia stories by C. S. Lewis. So there’s something for everyone!

Registration form on back page.

The theme for the retreat will be “Suffering and the God of Love.” From the stomach flu to the loss of a job, from natural disasters to the nighttime fears of children, all our lives are marked by suffering. Yet Christians assert that Almighty God loves us. Fr. Drew will lead three brief meditations exploring this theme, each followed by discussion time in small groups. Emphasis will be given to our common experience of grief, loss, and suffering and the way those experiences shape our life together and our view of God. Copies of A Grief Observed, C. S. Lewis’ own journal written in the days following the loss of his wife, will be available for purchase during the summer for those who wish to explore the theme more deeply.

Our retreat will follow the same basic schedule as in years past. One of the most popular features of the weekend has been the time spent in small groups. Each retreat participant is assigned to a small group

Staff Changes

Beginning in mid-July, Michael Trotta will take over duties as Director of Music from Brian Kittredge. Brian will remain on staff as Assistant to the Director of Music and choir member. In his two years as the Director of Music, Brian's creativity, passion, and vision has built our music program to one of the strongest in the diocese. Brian will continue his doctoral work at LSU as he assists Michael. Michael Trotta is already well known at St. Alban's as a member of the choir. He is a doctoral student at the LSU School of Music with many years of conducting experience. We look forward to his leading our music program to the next level. Our congregation is incredibly blessed to have these two doctoral students both returning to help lead our worship.

We must bid farewell to graduating intern Charlotte Gates. Charlotte graduates with a degree in psychology and minors in French and Biology. She is also the recipient of a 2010 Fulbright Scholarship and will leave for France at the end of this summer to work at the National Center for Scientific Research in Toulouse. She will study creativity, personality, and metal imagery in synesthetes. We will all miss her leadership, humor, cheerful spirit, and passion for Jesus Christ.

Stephen Crawford returns this fall for a third year as our senior ministry intern. Over the summer, Stephen will continue to meet with students, lead weekly Compline, and to plan the fall student program. Stephen and Amanda Loucke will be married here on August 7. We will be blessed to have both Mr. and Mrs. Crawford back with us for another academic year! Stephen's experience, thoughtfulness, and steady leadership have greatly contributed to the steady growth of our student ministry over the past few years.

Tia Willis starts her work here as a ministry intern this fall. Tia is a native of Baton Rouge coming to us from St. Luke's Episcopal Church. She will begin her third of five years at LSU as a student of architecture. Tia has worked as a counselor at Pine Cove in Tyler, TX and as one of our Explorers class instructors.

Emma Benton, a native of St. Francisville and member of Grace Church there, will be our third ministry intern this coming year. Emma will begin her junior year at LSU as a student of history. She has worked as a counselor at Camp Hardtner and as one of our nursery and Godly Play caregivers.

Please Pray for Corinne

Corinne Zarazua-Gradine, our faithful Godly Play teacher for several years, will leave on June 11 for Santarém, Brazil. Corinne will spend the summer working with Project Amazon which was established thirty years ago with the goal to have a church in every community. Alongside the resident missionaries there, Corinne will help build water pumps, enter data in the database, go out on the rivers in the mission boats, and be involved with church construction and health trips, intermixed with evangelical work in the church and village.

Corinne writes, "I want to go on this trip because I have been on shorter missions trips in the past and wanted to experience a longer stay. I have taken a few Portuguese classes in college and I hope that will help me to be a better help. The most exciting thing to me is simply that I have this opportunity before me and that I am willing and able to go." St. Alban's Chapel has provided some financial support for Corinne for this trip. Please remember her in your prayers!

Camp Hardtner Counselors

James Bordelon, Daniel Chapman, Emma Benton, and Jacob Van Hoof will all be serving as counselors at Camp Hardtner, a summer camp shared by the Diocese of Louisiana and the Diocese of Western Louisiana. Please keep them and all of our students in your prayers over the summer!

Foyer Groups

In church one Sunday, Charlie Williams stated, "Foyer's Rock." This is true and, like rock music, foyers come in many forms!

In past groups, there have been picnics, sit-down dinners, trips to restaurants, hosting student dinners, and an outing to Robert with a box lunch and a walk in the woods. Adding to the list, some of the foyers decided to do some very different things: providing and serving a hot dog lunch for 125 students for one of the Wednesday Lunch with C.S. Lewis gatherings; another Foyer Group took the money they would have spent on dinners and took their families to Wal-mart for a shopping spree to provide over $500 in food for the Baton Rouge Food Bank. Leave it to St. Alban's to always come up with neat ideas for anything!

The time has come to begin new Foyer Groups. If you would like to know your church family better (or have a 3-hour laugh marathon at a Chinese restaurant as one group recently did), then fill out the Foyer Group form and put it in the bowl near the coffee pots or contact Laurie Morris in the chapel offices to sign up. The drawing for Foyer groups will be held during the June Sunday brunch. Come join us and see for yourself that "Foyer's Rock"!
